NOTES:
1. There is no assurance that a visa would be issued and any preparation or plan made for the journey would be done at the applicant's own risk.
2. Failure to complete the form properly as well as to provide supporting documents will delay the processing of the application.
3. Under normal conditions, applications for visas should be submitted two weeks in advance of the proposed date of travel.
4. The granting of a visa does not necessarily guarantee entry into Guyana. Entry will be dependent upon satisfying the usual immigration requirements and procedures at the port of entry.
5. A visitor who without permission breaches his/her condition of entry while in Guyana may become eligible for deportation.
6. Persons wishing to extend their visas may apply at the Ministry of Home Affairs, Georgetown, Guyana.
7. A student visa may also be processed in Guyana by the educational institution accepting the applicant as a student.
